The Congressional Districts.

The slate is now pretty well made up in all the Congressional Districts, and we are enabled to take the bearings.

In the First District, the Democratic candidate, the Hon. Jesse J. Yeates, is opposed by J. J. Martin, Radical nominee, and C. L. Cobb, who rides the "National" horse, self-mounted. When the latter individual was in Congress, some few years since, he was known as "Butler's Cob,"—such influence did the "Beast" have over him. Perhaps the same influence has brought him out now, and he doubtless favors the nomination of Butler for the Presidency. Our friends in this District are active and united, and Maj. Yeates will be re-elected by a larger majority than before.

The negro O'Hara will, of course, be elected in the Second District.

No organized opposition has as yet shown itself to the Hon. A. M. Waddell in the Third District. It is understood, however, that Col. Richardson, of Moore, will run on the National platform, and it is intimated that Judge Buxton will be the Republican nominee. Col. Waddell's re-election is beyond peradventure.

As yet the fight is triangular in our own (the Fourth) District. That a regular Republican nominee will be brought out, in due season, we have no doubt. The candidacy of Mr. Bledsoe has seriously interfered with the Brindle-tail's calculations, as he had expected to "gobble up" the negro vote without hindrance. The Democrats of the District are calm and determined, and have little fears as to the result.

In the Fifth District, there are no less than three aspirants vainly striving after Gen. Scales' place—Col. Winston, (of whom we have spoken elsewhere, on the "National" platform, "Windy Billy" Henderson on the same platform, and ex-Judge Tourgee on an independent-Radical-carpet-bag steed. Tourgee is about the last carpet-bagger left, —among the last of that species left on the stalk

"To tell where the garden had been."

He is about the only remaining link that connects us with the days when Pilgrim Ashley, Littlefield, Laflin, Martindale, Fisher, Foster, Heaton, Hayes, Deweese and Proctor held high carnival and fattened and rioted in utter rottenness. Perhaps he has "pented," or, if not, "Josiah" has "pented" for him. At all events, he says that the Radical party now is "purified," and Tourgee has responded to the call to come up and help him (Turner) "purify" the Democratic party!! Tourgee's seeing capacities are good. He once saw (or heard of, we forget which,) fifteen dead negroes, murdered by the Ku-Klux, drawn out of a single pond, but it will take, as Sam Weller said, "a pair o' patent double million magnifyin' gas microscopes of hextra power" to enable him to see a seat in Congress from the Fifth District within his grasp.

Mr. H. H. Covington, of Richmond county, announces himself as a candidate, in opposition to the Hon. Walter L. Steele, in the Sixth District, on the "Farmers and Mechanics' Platform," whatever that may be. As Mr. Toots, in "Dombey and Son, remarked, on more than one occasion, "it's of no consequence," as Col. Steele has a margin of 7000 votes to go upon.

Messrs. W. H. Crawford, of Rowan, and H. H. Helper, of the same county, we believe, are trying the National dodge in the Seventh District, but, without more formidable opposition, Col. Armfield will have a virtual "walk over."

The Hon. R. B. Vance, in the Eighth District, is, as yet, without the shadow of opposition.

It will thus be seen that, though our late State election is only a little over three weeks old, the partial success of a few independents has already bred quite an army of the same brood. To aid them in disorganizing the Democratic party, with a view to running in Republican members of Congress, where practicable or possible, is the aim of the Radical managers, and, to that end, large sums of money will doubtless be thrown into debatable Districts. We believe that the Democracy of North Carolina are daily becoming more and more alive to the situation, and that, before the first Tuesday in November, they will oppose a solid and compact columns to the insidious machinations of the enemy. We believe we shall return seven members, as before, to the lower House of Congress, and that, should such a calamity ever come, there will not rest, upon the shoulders of the noble Democracy of North Carolina, any of the fearful responsibility for a loss of the House of Representatives.

FRANCE and England were for a long time considered as hereditary foes. From Dover and Amiens, on either side of the Channel, they glared on each other with fierce and jealous eyes for centuries. Windy Billy and Tourgee appear to be just such "natural enemies." They opposed each other for Congress in 1868, and, though ten long and weary years have since gone by, the atmosphere is scarcely free of the foul billingsgate they hurled at each other. And now history repeats itself, and once again the same combatants enter the arena; but, as they are both "purified," according to Jo. Turner, perhaps we shall be spared the filthy exhibitions of yore. If not,

"We don't care a toss-up
Whether Mossup beats Barry or Barry beats Mossup."

THE only disfranchisers in this country are the Radicals. In Rhode Island foreign whites are disfranchised, and in one or more of the New England States an educational or property qualification is required for the voter. In Massachusetts the poll tax, which a man must pay before voting, is two dollars. In Louisiana the Radical "Returning Board" disfranchised from twenty to thirty thousand Democratic voters in 1876. In view of the increased voice and influence in the government which the colored voters have given to the South, the Radical corruptionists would, if they could, disfranchise the negro to-morrow.

The "Official Register of the Carolina Military Institute," at Charlotte, for the years 1877-8, with the circular for 1878-9, has just been issued. The number of Cadets the past year was 73. The Faculty, with Col. J. P. Thomas, as Superintendent, at its head, is a thoroughly able one. Among the list of "most distinguished cadets in general merit," we are pleased to see the names of our young friends, W. E. and Bartlett Shipp, of Charlotte. The others from this State are Hasell Thomas, J. E. Carson, R. H. Clarkson, H. H. Orr, T. S. Franklin, E. Alexander, W. A. Graham, R. C. Carson and J. Rogers. This Institute is a credit to the State and merits encouragement.

The father of history itself was named Josephus—or "Jo," for short.—Raleigh News.

Was the Jewish historian the "father of history?" A famous Greek author, who flourished four or five hundred years before Josephus, and whose great history our scholarly friend of the News used to read so easily, wears that distinction.—Wilmington Star.

Our good friend of the Star is right, as he usually is in all such matters. We sacrificed Herodotus, for the sake of the point we were making.

The re-nomination of the Hon. Joseph J. Davis has been received with the liveliest expressions of gratification by the Democratic press of the State.

Hon. Joseph J. Davis.

We conclude, this morning, the promised extracts from the speech of the Hon. Joseph J. Davis on the currency question and the financial condition of the country, delivered in the House of Representatives on the 13th of November, 1877:

" * * Mr. Speaker, I think that our present distressed financial condition is due in the first place to exclusive privileges secured to the national banks, in the second place to contraction, and in the last place to the demonetization of silver. Gentlemen say that all these looked to the early resumption of specie payment. No, not specie payment, but payment in gold. These are the things that have brought about the present distress. Knowing what caused the distress, let us ask how the remedy shall be applied. We applied on the 4th of this month, so far as this House is concerned, one powerful medicine that will go a long ways to relieve the country; I mean the bill for the remonetization of silver. Just here I desire to state it as my opinion—and I believe that every man who reflects honestly upon this question will agree with me—that, if gold had been demonetized instead of silver, silver would be worth more to-day relatively in the market than gold is. If the government had said that silver alone should be the currency in which alone the bonds should be paid, that silver should be the money received for duties on importations, I believe it is as demonstrably clear as anything not a question of mathematics that the same gentlemen who are now howling for gold would be crying, "Give us silver dollars!" for there is not silver enough in the country to pay the imports for one year, there is not enough of it to pay interest on our national bonds. Silver would to-day be worth more than gold, because in point of value it is the scarcer of the two metals.

But my good friend from New York [Mr. Townsend], who spoke last, talked about the money for the poor man and the money for the rich man. There are some things about which men are very blind:

When self the wavering balance holds,
'Tis rarely right adjusted.

It is curious that gentlemen should say that we want to give the poor man trash as money. What do we want to give the poor man? We are seeking to give him what you yourselves declared money, and what was money when the bonds were issued. But suppose the so-called policy of resumption goes on, what does the poor man get? Do you say that it is dishonest to give the bondholder ninety-two cents in silver as a dollar when his bond calls for one hundred cents to the dollar? But the poor man when his labor earns $5 or less is obliged to take silver, and he cannot help himself!

Now, let us see how that will work. Here is a man employed by the gentleman from New York, who pays him every day $1. At the end of ten weeks he has paid him $60 in silver. That very man goes to pay his rent, and though the gentleman from New York has paid him $60 in silver, yet when he comes to collect his rent he says, "Oh, that is the poor man's money; that is a degraded currency; I cannot take that in payment; give me gold." So the poor fellow must take $60 in silver to get $60 in gold in order to pay his rent. Yet these men talk about our treating this question like demagogues; they talk about our giving the poor man one kind of money and the rich man another!

hy, sir, it does seem to me that the cheeks of a brazen statue would blush at such talk. They say that silver is trash; that honest men would not handle it; yet by the law which they passed, and which they insist must remain on the statute-book, they would require every man who had a debt due him of $5 or less to receive in payment this worthless degraded money; but when larger sums are to be paid, the larger creditors must be paid in gold!

Let us look at the resumption act in another aspect. It provides for redeeming greenbacks at the sub-treasury in New York, in sums of $50 and upward; so that the poor man who has less than $50 is obliged to sell his bills to the sharper, the money broker, the Shylock, before he can get gold for them. Yet they say this bill will ruin the poor man! Now, Mr. Speaker, I would much rather let the poor man take care of himself than have the bankers take care of him.

When gentlemen say that the bill for the remonetization of silver was not passed in the interests of the country, I call their attention to the fact that it was discussed all over the land, and the vote here for its passage was nearly five to one; yet even that vote does not fully represent the preponderance of popular sentiment in favor of this measure. You will find that outside of New York and other limited communities, everybody is in favor of it.

There is one thing further, Mr. Speaker, which I wish to add: I hold in my hand a schedule of the value of gold, month by month, from 1862 down to the present time, and also the gold value of the currency from that time down to this. There was not one of these bonds issued when greenbacks were not worth a great deal less than now. Here is the value given year by year. In 1862 it was 88; in 1863 it was 68. The following table will give exact figures:

* * * * * *

There is not one of these men who loaned to the Government money when it was worth within 30 per cent. of what greenbacks are now worth. Yet they talk about being paid in a degraded and disgraced currency! There is not one who gets silver who will not get twenty cents on the dollar more than he loaned, and yet they talk about a degraded currency! There is not one who if he gets ninety cents in the dollar but will get more than he loaned. Where, then, comes in the dishonesty? Where comes in the iniquity—I should have said where comes in the iniquity? Where comes in the injustice? Men have by shrewd policy and the power of the lobby put this thing on the country, and if the country rises up and says, "This shall go on no longer," they come and talk about hasty legislation.

The gentleman from New York would make it a violation of contract if we pass a bill now, saying these debts should be paid in greenbacks, which were legal tender at the time the debts were contracted. He says it is also a violation of contract if we remonetize silver. That is a strange and perverted idea of the law of contracts. Suppose the last Congress in the manner described by the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. KELLEY] or in the manner described by the gentleman from Illinois, [Mr. FORT] passed a law declaring bonds should be paid in diamonds. Would the gentleman say if we came here to repeal that iniquitous law, "You are breaking a contract because your predecessors said these bonds should be paid in diamonds." It is a nudum pactum; it is a contract not binding. Such contract, sir, would not be binding upon this Congress, nor upon this country. Nothing, in fact, can binds us; nothing can be claimed as binding upon the Congress of the United States and the people of the United States except the money of the country at the time the loan was contracted.

Now, Mr. Speaker, as I said at the outset, this is a question of great moment to the country. There is distress everywhere, and the country looks to us for relief. Members of this House were elected, most of them, in full view of the discussions had on the very question. Many come up here instructed as strongly as men can be by their constituents, to put a stop to the iniquities of a financial system which has brought ruin to this country. I say here to gentlemen who are trying to frighten us from our propriety that in our opinion the voice of the people comes like a mighty whirlwind, demanding we shall pass the pending financial measures. The voice of the people demands some justice shall be done to the laboring-men of the country and to men who have property other than national bonds. The public voice demands the outrages heretofore inflicted shall cease.

The public voice demands that there shall no longer be one money for the bondholder and another for the laboring-man. The country demands that the people shall not be taxed to death to pay a class of creditors who are not themselves taxed at all and in coin not named in the original contract. The country demands these men shall be dealt fairly with and no more; and that the debtor shall not be robbed for the creditor. It demands we shall cease to take out of the pockets of the debtor from thirty to forty cents on the dollar to pay the creditor in gold when the creditors themselves are not taxed.

One thing is sure and cannot be gainsaid Gentlemen on the other side talk about capital running away. All I have to say is, it is better to let it run away than to let it remain here as a mighty Moloch, crushing the labor of the country. It is said that injustice is done to capital. One thing is quite certain, that while every other species of property has depreciated the bonds held by the bondholders have advanced in value."

Progress of Total Abstinence in England.

From Sunday Afternoon.

In England, where the theory and practice of total abstinence have always been scoffed at by the cultivated majority, the awful prevalence of drunkenness is leading to the formation of a public sentiment against drinking as strong as any that ever existed in this country. The clergy have hither-maintained drinking practices, but now many ministers of the Establishment as well of the Dissenting bodies, with a large section of the medical profession and distinguished men from every walk in life, have united in a vigorous movement for the suppression of drunkenness, Cannon Earrar, in a sermon preached a few Sundays since in Westminister Abbey, "declared alcoholic drinking and drunkenness to be the one glaring, disgraceful and perilous national vice, by which the nation stands unenviably distinguished and seriously endangered." So strong a feeling of evils of drunkenness as that which now prevails in the respectable circles in England naturally leads to the adoption of the Christian rule of total abstinence.

The Right of an Audience to Hiss.

Among the orders just issued to the Boston police to regulate their duties in places of public amusement, is the following:

"Police officers are not to interfere, even on the request of the managers or their agents, with persons who in a reasonable and decorous manner express their dissent by hissing or otherwise at what is presented on the stage."

THE YELLOW FEVER.

GREEN BRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., Aug. 26.—Col. Long, the African explorer delivered a lecture here today. The proceeds about $200, was forwarded to the yellow fever sufferers at Vicksburg.

Consecration of Bishop Keane.

By Telegraph to the News.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 26.—The Consecration of Rev. John J. Keane, of Washington, as the fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Richmond and Vicar Apostle of North Carolina, took place this morning, at St. Peter's Cathedral. It being the first time that a Catholic bishop has ever been consecrated in this city. The occasion created great interest among the Catholics of the diocese crowds of whom came from various points to witness the ceremonies, besides these many of other denominations were attracted by the novelty of the ceremony. Large numbers also were present from Baltimore, Washington and other cities north. The weather was delightful. At 10 o'clock the line of escort composed of delegations of the various Catholic societies formed along the side walk, between the Episcopal residence and the church, in such a manner as to keep kack the crowd, and soon after the procession of acolytes, priest and bishops, with the bishop elect and consecrator Arch-bishop Gibbons and assistant consecrators Right Rev. Bishop Foley, of Chicago, and Right Rev. Bishop Kain, of Wheeling, W. Va., in the rear passed from the house into the Cathedral. The ceremony of consecration was then begun and progressed with great solemnity and impressiveness. The consecration sermon was preached by the Right Rev. R. N. Lynch, Bishop of Charleston, S. C., and was an able effort, and occupied one hour in its delivery. Four hours passed before the concluding solemnities, but they were of such an interesting character that the congregation gave no evidence of being tired, and remained quietly until the procession was formed at the end of mass, and returned to the Episcopal mansion. During the whole time large crowds remained outside the Cathedral, anxious to see and hear all they could. This afternoon Archbishop Gibbons celebrated pontificial vespers, during which Bishop Keane delivered his first sermon to a crowded congregation. There were present Right Rev. Bishop Moore, of Florida, and Right Rev. Bishop Gross, of Savannah, also a large number of priests from cities north and south, including several from Boston, Baltimore and Washington.

HARRISBURG, PA., August 26.—Wm. Harvey and Michael Alerny, charged with the murder of Wm. Collander, in Lucern county, in September last, have been arrested at Cornellsville.

WESTERN CAROLINA.

Swain County--Commissioner Polk's Campaign.

Special Correspondence of the News.

CHARLESTON, August 19.

Swain county was formed in 1870 from Jackson and Macon counties and commemorates the name of Governor Swain. Its population is twenty-five hundred, and its area one thousand square miles, being one of the largest counties in the State. It has always elected the Democratic ticket. There are in the county nine Baptist, four Methodist and one Presbyterian churches, twenty-one schools, four mineral springs, one sulphur and three iron; the timbers consist of walnut, oak, poplar, pine, hickory, birch, beach and ash; thirteen grain and five saw mills; the minerals are silica, lead, copper, iron mica and saltpetre The soil is black loam, very fertile, and produces in great abundance wheat, rye, oats corn, sorghum and the grasses. The surface in mountainous, and presents, on its rivers, some of the most picturesque scenery in the west, and its water-power is without limit. Soapstone and sandstone are found in large quantities; all of the fruits, particularly apples, peaches, pears and grapes, do well.

THE COUNTY SEAT.

Charleston, the county seat, is a small village situated on the Tuckasiegee, or Terrapin river, one of the prettiest streams in the west, abounding in fish. The trade of the county is with Knoxville and Atlanta, each ninety miles distant.

COL. T. D. BRYSON,

aged forty-nine, a very successful farmer, is the member-elect to the Legislature. He represented Jackson county in that body in 1854, '8 and '9, '64, '6 and '7, and was set aside and disfranchised in 1867 by the Canby military government.

In 1870 the county was formed, Col. Bryson residing in Swain, and he has served continuously in the Legislature ever since. Few men in the Legislature will enter that body with the experience of Col. B., and being thoroughly identified with the interests of the west, he will make a useful member. His father Daniel Bryson, although ninety-one years old, is in good health, mental and physical, and very active.

Col. Polk delivered a speech of two hours, in the court house, to a small audience, there being a camp-meeting and association going on in different sections of the county, which prevented a full attendance. The speech was delivered in his usual good style, created a good impression, and will do the farmers of Swain much good.

OLD SI

A Man Who Woke Himself Up By Jumping Off a Train.

A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., is as follows:

Last night Jesse Walte, of Williamsburg, N. Y., went to sleep in a sleeping car on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, about forty miles west of this city, and while the train, the fast express. was moving at the rate of about forty miles an hour, he arose, and while asleep walked off the end of the car. The train stopped about half a mile further on, and the conductor went back to find the man, whom he met walking along the railroad track, following after the train. A few scratches were all the injuries he had sustained.

The Coming Election--A Word to Absentees--An Excuse for Two--Our Duty, etc.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, August 25, 1878.

The election in November is one of no ordinary importance. It may have a controlling agency in this government for years to come, and it is incumbent upon every Democrat to do his whole duty. Our standard-bearer has no easy race before him, and his success depends upon the united support and cooperation of the Democratic party. Had the absentees been here on the day of election, our entire ticket could have been elected. I heard one give, the other day, as a reason of our defeat, that it was a weak ticket. Had he been here a week sooner, the majority would have been one less. But that is now all past, and let the absentees redeem themselves in November. Our excellent Secretary of State went 130 miles to vote; let the late absentees go in November 130 yards to do likewise.

But my principal object in writing this, is to say a word, particularly, in defence of one or two of our absentees, whose Democracy cannot be questioned, who were kept away by unavoidable necessity.

My friend, Mr. L., who has never heretofore missed an election, (except in the middle ward,) and who is extremely assiduous in his efforts on election days, did yeoman service in Madison county, on the day preceding the election. We are told he made a telling speech at the great barbecue at Warm Springs. That he pleased everybody, and delighted the ladies, "led captivity captive," and swayed the multitude; and inasmuch as he voted both at the Warm Springs, and at Marshall, and in consideration of the confident expectation and full belie that he would have "married a wife,'f is therefore excused.

Our friend the Proffessor, whose onerous and imperative official duties and requirements have heretofore prevented his advent to any election, and have, on one or two occasions, necessitated his precipitate leaving on the day before, fully expected, and intended to have been here, but was unexpectedly called to the vicinity of Bald Mountain, to examine some infinetesimal specimens of necophosomite, which had just been discovered in considerable quantities. The Legislature should lighten the burdens, or increase the salary. The past legislatures have been rather slow in relieving the Professor.

The "ides" of November will soon be upon us, when every Democrat in the trict is expected to do his whole duty. let us redeem what has been lost. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel, and with a long pull, and strong pull, and a pull altogether, our worthy and gallant nominee, Franklin's pride and power, will receive a handsome majority in this county, and a triumphant election in the district. A NAME TO CONJURE WITH.

How a Republican North Carolina County Was Carried for the Democracy.

Special Correspondence Philadelphia Times

NEWBERN, August 17.

To the immense astonishment, alike of Democrats and Republicans, Mr. Stephen D. Pool, of Newbern, was elected Superintendent of Public Instruction by a majority of not far from 15,000. The State was at the time in the hands of the Republicans. He had an able, popular and active Republican competitor. Mr. Thomas R. Purnell, who made a thorough canvass and brought out all the henchmen of his party. When they came to the polls, however, many of them voted for Pool. This was largely the case in the eastern counties, which were well stocked with slaves before the war, and where the negro vote was heavy. At the time this strange conduct seemed to challenge successful explanation. Both of the candidates were comparative strangers in that particular section, so personal preference evidently could not have affected the result. Investigation, set on foot by the Republican executive committee and conducted by the efficient detective agency of the numerous and powerful Union Leagues, at last disclosed the reason of this extraordinary conduct of so many Republican voters in going back upon their own man. It appeared that they went for the Democratic nominee just because his name was Pool. Hon. John Pool was then a Republican United States Senator from North Carolina, the Republican Judge of the Eastern District was one C. C. Pool and there were several other Pools in those parts who were prominent Republicans. It was eminently a Republican patronymic. That a man could bear the name of Pool and not be a Republican seemed to the simple, confiding minds of the colored voters—and to some white ones of the humbler class—altogether out of question. Thus was the unexpected success of the Democratic Pool accounted for. The deluded suffragans had literally "pooled their issues," though none of them, nor anybody else, perhaps, had ever heard of Dennis Kearney.

Northampton county has been, ever since the "reconstruction" of North Carolina in 1868, a stronghold of Republicanism. It contains many respectable, intelligent and substantial white Republicans, a considerable number of whom are Quakers. The negro vote preponderates, and it never failed to come solidly to the ballot-boxes upon election day. For ten years the Democrats have made no serious effort to carry the county, and in fact have rarely put a ticket in the field, except for mere purposes of party discipline. The Republican majority was 716 two years ago, in a total poll of 3.615. So controlling was the influence of that party that it has not involved any sacrifice of social standing for a white man to belong to it in Northampton.

At the recent State election the Republicans made large gains in the adjoining county of Hertford and in most, if not all, of the other counties of the First Congressional District. But lo, and behold! Northampton went the other way and elected a Democratic Representative by 133 majority. Here was a puzzling paradox. How the thing was done, however, appears below:

The Democratic candidate for the Legislature was a Mr. James W. Grant. Like his illustrious namesake, he is a silent man and makes no speeches. On the morning of the election, just previous to the opening of the polls, a man on horseback appeared at each voting precinct in the county, called up the colored voters and addressed them substantially as follows:

Fellow-citizens: I come to address you this morning as to the man you shall vote for. I shall say but few words, and these will be especially directed to you colored people. ask I who gave you your liberties?"

"Grant! Grant! General Grant!" rent the air in a general yell from the dusky crowd.

"Who fought for you four years, and took you from the bonds of slavery and made you a free and noble people?"

"Grant! Grant! General Grant!" again the shout went up.

"Then here are 'Grant' tickets I hold in one hand, and 'Newsum' tickets I hold in the other. Which will you vote?"

"Give me de Grant ticket! Give me de Grant ticket! Hurrah for Grant! I is for Grant every time, I is!" was was the almost unanimous response.

The thunderstruck Republican fuglemen were too dazed at the audacity of the spokesman, and its success to interfere in season. The affair was a complete coup de main. By one of those sudden transports of enthusiasm which have seized upon men in crowds in all climes and ages, and to which the negro race is peculiarly susceptible, the colored voters caught eagerly at the "Grant" ballots, rushed to the boxes and put them in. And thus Northampton returned a Democratic representative. At the single precinct of Rich Square, which usually gives four or five hundred Republican majority, Mr. Grant got 411 votes over his Republican competitor.

Republican Tactics in Texas.

New Orleans Democrat.

The Republicans of Texas have resolved to follow the example of their North Carolina brethren and fight the Democrats with a new party. They have selected for this purpose the Greenback party, which they think will carry with it a large Democratic vote, and have offered the new party all their money and all their votes. Ex-Governor Davis has just indorsed the Greenback ticket and proferred it all the aid in his power; the other Republican leaders are doing the same, turning over their forces and votes to the new organization, and asking no return therefor. It is even said that the Federal officeholders of Texas will be heavily assessed to pay the expenses of the new party, and that Greenback document will be forwarded from the Republican Congressional Committee at Washington to help it make the inroads into the Democratic ranks. The Texas Republicans are showing their sense by keeping securely in the background; they made no speeches in the last convention, have run no candidates for office and have very little to say about the campaign.

A Singular Cure for Rheumatism.

A woman near Prague suffered so severely from gout in the arm that she could not obtain rest or sleep, and the limb in which the disease had settled was rendered entirely useless. Her husband, having heard of a countryman who had been completely cured of rheumatism after being accidentally stung by a bee, persuaded her to try this disagreeable remedy, which, as he pointed out, could hardly prove so painful as the disease. She consented, and allowed three bees to be placed on her arm, and to sting her in several places. Surprising results ensued: the patient soon afterward fell into a long and deep sleep, the first real sleep she had enjoyed for six months, after which the acute pain disappeared; and when the swelling produced by the stings subsided the arm recovered the power of motion, and the gout has not since re-appeared.

The Raleigh and Gaston Railway Shops.

The workmen in these shops are now busy. In the iron shop one of the engines, No. 12, is receiving a complete overhauling, and in a month will be turned out as good and neat as when new. The work of these shops are superior, and the master, Mr. B. L. Harding is possessed of ability and energy second to none. The employees are all men of experience in their several departments. A beautiful through baggage car has just left the paint shop, and is of the same color and style as the regular cars for some years in use on this road. All cars, of all classes, will hereafter be painted the same color. Another baggage and postal car, now in the shop, needs only a coat of paint and some interior fittings, before going into use. A new passenger car is under way in the wood shop, and may possibly be fitted up as a sleeper.

There are at present about 75 men employed in all the shops. The amount of money paid out to these employees by the Raleigh and Gaston, is about $36,000 yearly. All the details of labor are admirably conducted.

A correspondent tells the Raleigh News that on the 3rd inst., a difficulty, growing out of an old church feud, occurred between O. L. Keith and Jas. Jenkins, fifteen miles from Murphy, Cherokee county, in which Jenkins received three mortal wounds, and died in a few minutes. Keith was arrested and lodged in jail, to await his trial before the Superior Court.

Babies are the institution and should be guarded from attacks of Colic, Flatulence, etc., by Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Hon. A. S. Merrimon, by invitation, will speak at Greensboro, Tuesday, September 3rd, and with General Scales at Dalton's, Stokes Co., Wednesday, September 4th.

The Hon. Alfred M. Scales---His Financial Record, and that of the other Democratic Congressmen---The Democracy the Friends of the People.

In pursuance of our purpose to show that the North Carolina Democratic delegation in Congress, without an exception, have been true to the interests and demands of the masses of our people on all questions affecting the currency, we have heretofore given the record of Senators Ransom and Merrimon and of the Hon. W. M. Robbins. We are privileged, to-day, to present an exhaustive resume of the course of the able and patriotic Representative from the Fifth District, the Hon. Alfred M. Scales, with reference to the same, and other, absorbing issues. This resume will be found the more interesting, for the reason that, while exhibiting the admirable record of Gen. Scales, it embraces a chronological and accurate history of Congressional legislation, accomplished or attempted, on the various financial projects that have engaged the attention of the National Legislature for the past three years, and demonstrates how fully in accord all the Democratic members of our delegation have been thereon, and how true they have been, upon every occasion, to the principles for which we are now contending, as embodied in the platforms laid down by our respective District Conventions.

We invite especial attention, therefore, to the article published below. In view of the record thus presented, we may well and confidently assert that to no other source than to the Democratic party can any sincere or sensible man look for relief. In 1876,—the first time that the Nationals came to the front, in a Presidential race,—they polled in the whole country only 81,740 votes, while the Democratic party polled 4,284,757 against a Republican vote of 4,033,950. There was not in the last Congress, nor is there in the present Congress, a single "National," eo nomine, in either branch. There has not been, until very recently, (say within the last three months,) a single National organization in the Southern States, and even now it is made up of a few clubs, widely scattered and inconsiderable in numbers. There is, and there can be, therefore, no hope for the currency in the National party. If those who compose it are sincerely desirous of the financial reforms they aim at, they must and will be absorbed by the Democratic party. If their candidates are simply ambitious and want places, then, of course, they care nothing for principles and mean to disrupt, or are acting so as to disrupt, if possible, the only party that can save the country. The New York Times actually claims that the Nationals are in the interests of the Republican party. The truth is, however, that there are many good men who have been deluded into a temporary leaning towards them, but who will see their mistake and adhere to the grand old Democratic party, that only wants the power to redeem all its pledges!

We are loth to question the motives of Col. Winston in opposing Gen. Scales. Surely, if Col. W. is only actuated by an earnest desire to see reforms accomplished, he takes a singular way of showing his sincerity,—by antagonizing a gentleman whose whole record is so entirely clear and unmistakable, and a party (with which he has heretofore acted) which has not only already done much, but will soon have the opportunity of doing all, that he proposes to have at heart.

June 28th, 1876, Mr. Landers, Democrat, offered an amendment to authorize the coinage of the silver dollar, and to make it a legal tender for all debts, public or private. This was without any restriction, and if it had become a law, and the coin had been issued according to the capacity of the mints, it would have added fifty millions of silver coin every year to the amount of money in the country. Gen. Scales voted for this, but it was defeated in the Senate.

January 17th, 1876, Mr. Holman moved a suspension of the rules to enable him to introduce this resolution: "That it is unwise and inexpedient, at this time, that a specific and arbitrary period should be prescribed by law at which legal tender notes of the United States should be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury in coin, and therefore the act entitled an act to provide for the resumption of specie payments, offered January 14th, 1875, ought to be repealed, and the committee on Banking and Currency is instructed, at an early day as practicable, to report a bill for that purpose." Mr. Scales voted for this but the motion failed.

Feb. 7, 1876, Kaoson, Republican, moved to suspend the rules and pass resolutions denying the power of the Government to issue legal tender paper money, and that all legislation touching the legal tender currency should keep steadily in view the resumption of specie payments. There were against this 146 votes; 136 were Democrats and only ten Republicans. Mr. Scales voted with the 136 Democrats against resumption.

Feb. 14, '76, Mr. Hale, of Maine, Rep., introduced a resolution: "That prompt measures should be taken, by such legislation as is needed, to render effective the policy of a resumption of specie payments, by placing in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury all necessary power to carry out said objects." 136 voted against it; of this number there were 126 Democrats and 13 Republicans. Mr. Scales voted with the Democrats against resumption.

March 20th, 1876: Mr. Atkins moved to suspend the rules and pass a resolution to repeal the act to provide for specie payments, approved January 14th, 1875. This was carried, but failed to get the two-thirds vote. There voted in the affirmative 95 Democrats and 15 Republicans. Mr. Scales voted in the affirmative.

June 6th, 1876: Mr. Randall, Dem., from the Committee on Rules, reported a resolution that the Committee on Banking and Currency be allowed to report at any time. The object of this was to enable the committee, at all times, when ready, to report a bill to repeal resumption, and for such other legislation on the currency as they deemed demanded by the necessities of the country. The hard money men, mostly Republicans, bitterly opposed this, because they feared legislation looking to soft money, and the soft money men advocated it. There were 115 votes in the affirmative and 97 in the negative; of the 115 there were only 3 Republicans. Mr. Scales voted in the affirmative, and the resolution was agreed to.

July 10th, 1876: Mr. Holman, Democrat, introduced a bill to repeal so much of the Resumption act of January 14th, 1875, as authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem legal tenders in gold. Yeas 105, nays 96; of the yeas there were 12 Republicans and 93 Democrats. Mr. Scales voted yea. It was disagreed to, two-thirds being necessary to a suspension of the rules.

These votes were given and this fight made in the Forty-fourth Congress, mainly to re-monetize silver and to prevent further contraction of the currency, and the North Carolina delegation and the Democrats from the South and South-west, with a very few exceptions, were a unit for this purpose. It will be remembered that there was comparative prosperity until 1873, when, by reason of the contraction of the currency in funding legal tender notes, all prosperity was arrested and failures in great numbers took place every day. Government bonds were substituted for the legal tender notes withdrawn and the terrible panic of 1873 was upon us. But in the year following, the records of the country show, and we all remember, that the business of the country revived. In that year first-class mechanics received from $2.50 to $3.00 per day in many States, and there seems to have been no scarcity of work. In January 1875, the resumption law was passed. By this the greenbacks were to be redeemed in January 1879, and this could be done in only two ways, either by providing gold enough for the purpose or by contracting the currency so that the amount in the country would at least equal the gold. We could not get gold enough to redeem the present amount of currency, because it was mostly absorbed by gold interest bearing notes held abroad against our government and our railroad corporations.

On the 31st of October, 1877, after two years' preparation under the resumption law, the Secretary of the Treasury reported that he had accumulated only $57,436,071 in gold, and if we deduct the interest due, to wit, $24,840,093, there was left in the treasury only $32,595,978 in gold to redeem a legal tender currency of $356,483,892. This, of course, was hopeless to insure successfully the redemption.

The history of specie payments in all countries shows that there should be at least $3 in gold to $1 in currency. The only other alternative then was to contract the currency, and this the Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of the Republican policy, proceeded to do. Then it was that an effectual check was placed to all prosperity. It was a warning to the banks to retire or surrender their currency, and to all business men to withdraw their money from business pursuits. As money grew scarcer it grew dearer and dearer, its purchasing power rapidly increased, and in the same ratio property diminished in value. Men hoarded money to buy property, as it dwindled day by day, when it reached the bottom. Thus money was withdrawn from circulation, and all business, all enterprise, was crushed out. The laborer had no employment and his family no wages to supply their daily bread. This state of things called loudly on Congress for relief, and as the first great step in that direction a Democratic House bent all its energies to the repeal of the resumption law, the greatest financial curse, if not actual villainy, that was ever perpetrated upon a free people. But notwithstanding all efforts made in every shape and form, it was defeated in the Forty-fourth Congress.

In the Forty-fifth Congress, on the 31st of October, 1877, at the called session, very soon after the assembling of Congress, Mr. Ewing, Dem., reported, from the Committee on Banking and Currency, a bill to repeal the resumption clause in the act of the 14th of January, 1875. Mr. Fort, Rep., reported a substitute, which was equally acceptable to all, and more so to some. This was fought fiercely, first by a motion of Mr. Conger, Rep., to lay the motion made by Mr. Ewing on the table. Ewing's motion was to get it out of the committee for speedy action in the House. On Conger's motion the vote was: Nays, 138; of which number there were 26 Republicans.

November 2: Mr. Hale, Rep., moved to lay the bill on the table; nays, 140. Mr. Scales and the whole North Carolina delegation voted in the negative, versus Conger and Hale. Mr. Fort's substitute was then agreed to, Nov. 23.

On the same day, Hubbell, Rep., offerred an amendment unfriendly to the bill, which was defeated by nays 158; yeas 90; of the nays, 28 only were Republicans.

Other amendments were introduced but were all defeated; and the bill as amended by the substitute of Mr. Fort was passed; yeas 133, nays 120. Among the yeas 25 were Republicans, all the others were Democrats. This bill was thus passed at the extra session and sent to the Senate, where it was retained all of the extra session and the greater part of the second session and then defeated. Mr. Scales and the whole North Carolina delegation voted for the Fort bill.

April 29, 1878; Mr. Fort, Rep., moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill to prevent any further retirement of legal tender notes, which passed; yeas 177, nays 35. The whole of our delegation was known to be in favor of the bill. It was taken up in the Senate May 7, and passed by a vote of 41 yeas to 18 nays. Messrs. Hill and Lamar both favored the bill.

November 5th, 1877: Mr. Bland introduced a Bill to remonetize silver without restriction—the same to be coined upon the same terms as gold. Passed—years 164, nays 34. Mr. Scales and the North Carolina members voted in the affirmative. The Senate amended by restricting the amount of silver to not less than $2,000 000, nor more than $4,000,000 per month, and while the coinage of gold is free, required the cost of coinage of silver to be paid into the Treasury. As amended it passed the Senate, but was vetoed by the President. It was passed over his veto by a two-third vote. Mr. Scales and our members voted aye. It was not all the silver money wanted but was the best that then could be had.

January 29th, 1878: Mr. Matthews' resolution providing for payment of United States bonds, principal and interest, in coin, that is in silver or gold at the option of the government, came to the House and was passed by a vote of 189 yeas and 79 nays. Mr. Scales and the North Carolina delegation voting yea.

January 21, 1878: Mr. Southard, Democrat, moved to suspend the rules, that he might introduce and pass a bill, making legal tenders receivable for all government dues; yeas, 154, nays, 96. It failed because it lacked a two-thirds vote. Mr. Scales and the State delegation favored this bill, and nearly all the Democrats of the South and Northwest.

March 25th: Mr. Goode, Democrat, moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill to suspend for five years the payment of the one per cent to the sinking fund. This fund had increased beyond the requirements of the law, and the object of the bill was to reduce taxation for five years, without any violation of the law creating the sinking fund. Yeas 122, nayes 112. Mr. Scales and the North Carolina delegation favored this proposition. Only 16 Republicans and 106 Democrats voted for it.

June 17th, 1878: The bill providing for a reduction of the tobacco tax to 16 cents, passed the House. Yeas 130, nays 108. Of the yeas there were only ten Republicans; the balance were Democrats. Mr. Scales and the North Carolina Democrats voted yea.

Jan. 30, 1878: Mr. Garfield, Rep., introduced a resolution that it was inexpedient to reduce the tax on distilled spirits. This was intended to thwart the Democratic Committee of Ways and Means, that had determined on a reduction of this tax. Yeas, 140; nays, 112. Only four Republicans voted with the Democrats for the reduction of the tax, and against Mr. Garfield's proposition. Mr. Scales and the North Carolina Democrats voted against the resolution.

Feb. 4, 1878: Mr. McMahon, Dem, moved to suspend the rules and pass the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, In the present condition of public distress, it is important that the wealth of the country should bear a fair proportion of the burdens of taxation; therefore,

"Resolved, That the Committee of Ways and Means be instructed to report a bill imposing a graduated tax upon the excess of income above a reasonable minimum, to be fixed by law, and that said bill be reported at the earliest practicable moment."

Yeas, 165; nays, 89.

It failed for want of a two-thirds vote. Of the yeas 51 were Republicans and 114 Democrats, Mr. Scales and the delegation voting for the resolution.

In addition to this record in Congress, Mr. Scales, with the other members from North Carolina, and with the Democrats in the South and Northwest, and some Republicans, formed a greenback association and met in the committee room on the Judiciary. The object of this association was to raise money and provide means for scattering information among the people of New England and the middle States. It did not interfere with party relations, but Mr. Scales joined it and contributed money to promote the great objects of the association, to wit: the repeal of the resumption clause, to give to the people money enough to meet all the wants of trade, to substitute legal tender notes for bank issues, to remonetize silver, &c., as indicated by the votes above given.

The platform laid down by the convention of the Fifth District is substantially the same as that laid down by the State Democratic Conventions in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Iowa and Maine in 1875, 1876, 1877 and 1878. We do not refer to all these States in all the different years as having the same platforms, but some of them in one year and some in another. So the National Democratic platform of 1876 provides for the repeal of the resumption clause and against artificial scarcity of the currency. There are many other State Democratic platforms that could be referred to, but time fails.

Valuable Land For Sale.

On Thursday, September 19th, 1878, I will expose to public sale, on the premises, that valuable parcel of land, belonging to the estate of Henry Mordecai, deceased, which lies along the Eastern line of the Louisburg Road, adjoining the land of John Price on the North, Thomas B. Bridgers on the East, A. F. Taylor on the South and said Louisburg Road on the West, containing about

FORTY ACRES.

Will be sold in parcels to suit purchasers. The sale is made under judgment of Wake Superior Court, to make assets for payment of debts of deceased.

TERMS: One-third Cash; residue in two equal installments on a credit of 6 and 12 months respectively, with interest at 6 per cent from date of sale.

Bond with approved security required for deferred payments.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!
A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs. Person's father. Mrs. Person lives at Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whisky, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. ——— wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians! We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

The above receipt has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for Scrofula, and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier, it is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

LOUISBURG, N. C., May 22, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son. He was troubled with twenty-seven running sores, some of them quite large, and of a Scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your Remedy he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite well and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,

Very Respectfully,
T. J. STOKES.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H Heartt, Druggists, Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to

I have tried the Xanthine, and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff.

W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

Weather Probabilities.

Washington, D. C., August 26.

For South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather, and frequent rain; northeasterly winds, nearly stationary pressure and temperature.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Bat shooting is the fashionable sport these afternoons.

——Mt. Zion Baptist Association meets to-day near Chapel Hill.

——Merchants are now leaving for the North to lay in stocks for the fall trade.

——Sinclair, Bro. & Co., of Baltimore, took out a Drummers license yesterday.

——The official report of the State Normal School's late session at Chapel Hill is now being prepared by the Secretary Capt. Dugger.

——Drummers license were issued from the State Treasury yesterday to witt: Watkins & Co., Lynchburg, Va., and B. Ayers & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

——Letters are held at the post office addressed to Hyman Lewis, Edgecombe county, and Preston Bradfoot, Maryland: both lacking the name of the town.

——An excursionist drew a pistol yesterday at the Central depot, and threatened to make things lively, but his rage was soon subdued and he was disarmed.

——The Cameo setting of a ring was lost on Fayetteville street or in the Capital square, on Sunday. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

——The pleasant weather of last Sunday morning drew large congregations to the churches. Owing to the heavy rain storm in the evening the attendance was quite small.

Wake Superior Court began its second week yesterday. Next Monday the Criminal Court begins a two weeks term.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m., 72° 2 p. m., 82°
10 " 77° 6 " 78°

This gentleman will address the farmers of Pender county, at Point Caswell, on the 11th September.

Prisoners.

Sheriff J. T. Hunter, of Alamance county, brought down yesterday three recruits for the penitentiary gang. Their names were Sidney Patterson, white, larceny, 5 years; John Hopkins, white, felony, 5 years; Joshua Bass, colored, larceny, 2 yrs.

At Cost.

Mr. D. Oettinger's notice of the sale of his large and select stock of boots and shoes, at cost, appears elsewhere. The reason for the sale on such terms is his desire to remove and change his business. It gives a capital opportunity to make good bargains.

Commissioned.

The Governor has issued a commission to William J. Montgomery as Solicitor of the Sixth Judicial District.

Commissions were also issued to A. C. Avery, as Judge of the 8th Judicial District; James C. L. Gudger, Judge of the 9th; and to Garland S. Ferguson, as Solicitor of the 9th District.

The Graded School.

The session of this school soon opens. Miss Nettie Marshall, who at the State Normal School, was one of the best teachers in Miss Coe's Kindegarton, will have charge of that department have during the coming term. She is a teacher of ability. It is hoped that over 500 pupils will be enrolled at this school.

On the War Path

Maj. Moses A. Bledsoe, the new candidate for Congressional honors, dug up the tomahawk and started on the war path yesterday. He opens his campaign by speaking at Nashville, Nash county, to-day. He will there meet Hon. J. J. Davis. Where is Josiah?

The Supreme Court.

M. Justice John H. Dillard, of the State Supreme Court, is in the city.

Mr. Justice Thomas S. Ashe is expected to-day.

There will, it is understood, be a meeting of the Judges to-day, at which it is probable the districts will be arranged in the order in which they will be called. There were formerly twelve districts, there are now only nine.

The Triplets.

These infant prodigies were taken in charge by a committee of ladies on Sunday, and were elegantly and tastefully dressed for public exhibition. During the day great numbers called to pay their respects, and the tiny creatures were the recipients of a thousand compliments for their pretty appearance. The three are in no respect dissimilar, and should they ever get mixed the mistake can never be corrected. Many presents have been made them.

Military Gossip.

The place selected for the next encampment of the troops is the large open space just in rear of the Sanders mansion, on Hillsboro Avenue. Capt. Denson, Secretary of the State Agricultural Association, addressed a letter to Mr. W. J. Sanders, stating the desirability of securing the site for a camp, on account of its eligibility and other advantages, and asking his consent to its temporary use. To this request Mr. Sanders has courteously given his assent, stating his entire willingness and readiness to do anything in his power to advance the interests of the State Guard as well as the Fair. This kindness will be appreciated by all, and the camp so near the city will offer in its glimpses of military life, a pleasant week's scene to the citizens. It is just the place for it, at convenient distance from the city and the Fair Grounds, so that the troops will not be fatigued by long marches.

The Hunting Season.

The time for quail shooting now approaches. Sportsmen will be pleased to know that the season gives promise of being a fine one, as young birds are abundant. The dry weather of June and early July gave them a good start, as rains at that time drown them out. Coveys of young birds are very numerous. Col Jas. Font. Taylord says the proper name of the quail found here is the "Collier." They are more commonly called patridges, but it is a misnomer, as the partridge is thrice their size.

Personals.

Maj. J. M. Robinson. Prsident of the Raleigh & Gaston Railway and its connections, is in the city,

Mr. M. J. Jordan left yesterday on a visit to New York, Boston, and other cities, to be absent some weeks.

Rev. Dr. Marshall left yesterday for Western North Carolina.

Mr. Wm. Woollcott went north yesterday morning to buy his fall stock of dry goods, millinery, &c.

Mr. C. A. Hege, of Salem, one of the most prominent gentlemen of Forsyth, is in the city on business relating to the Salem Agricultural Works.

The Western Excursion.

About one hundred and fifty excursionists passed through the city yesterday, on their way to the mountains. The excursion train left Morehead City at an early hour, On arrival here about 150 passengers were on board. These stopped here for two hours, and visited the city, going on in cars attached to the regular mail. The number will be largely augmented by the time the head of the road, at Henry's, is reached. Many will go on to Asheville and Warm Springs. To fully enjoy the mountain scenery several parties will walk from the head of the road to Asheville. They will be absent a week or ten days. Few left from this place.

Wake Superior Court.

Court met at 10 a. m. yesterday, His Honor, Judge Seymour presiding. The following cases were tried.

W. R. Pepper vs. N. B. Broughton; jury out from Thursday night until Sunday at 3 p. m., gave the verdict for the defendant, Broughton; whereupon the plaintiff appealed to the Supreme Court.

John C. Blake, Cash., vs. J. P. H. Russ and B. F. Cheatham; jury went out at June term as to Russ. nol. pros. as to Cheatham.

L. B. Seagraves, executor, vs. E O. Macy, adm'r; S. G. Ryan appointed guardian, ad litem, of Haywood J. Welsh, minor.

A. G. Lee & Co. vs. R. F. Jones & Co.; argued on report of referee.

Pending argument in the last case, Court adjourned to-day at 10 o'clock.

John H. Tyler & Co.

The advertisement of this widely known Richmond firm of Jewellers appears to-day in the advertisement columns. The house is one of the best known in the South, and has for many years taken highest rank among those of Richmond. A glimpse of its interior gives but a faint idea of its size, excellence and beauty of the stock. There are at no time less than $100,000 worth of goods displayed, and in every department it offers all that Northern stores can while selling at their own price or less. Silver and plated ware of all descriptions, clocks, chains and necklaces, ear rings, jewelry of all kinds, precious stones, military and masonic goods, spectacles and eye-glasses, watches, gold and silver, from the hands of the best makers, and of all qualities and prices, form but a portion of the infinite variety, of the contents of this establishment. The firm was organized in 1866, but the house was founded more than 70 years ago, and in all that time its reputation has increased, until now it is the peer of any in the country.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Manly had an array of criminals before him at yesterday morning's levee, and as will be seen, dispensed justice right and left. The first case was that of Handy Whitaker, George Norwood and George Partin, the negro thieves who stole $450 in silver from the house of Mr. Jack Jones, in Panther Branch township. One of the accused, George Partin, stated that Norwood and a negro, Fab. Blalock, went to Jones' house and brought out a trunk. Handy Whitaker helped them lift it over a fence. After carrying it about 100 yards they broke it open, and took out two bags of money. It is hoped they will there get their deserts and not escape. The next day meeting, Blalock, Partin said the latter gave him $20 and a suit of clothes. These were bought at Newsom's store, and the clerk who sold them identified Norwood and Whitaker as the purchasers

On Saturday Partin was told by the authorities, he being then in the station house, that if he would find the rest of the money he could keep the $20. He then piloted the police to the place where the two bags lay hidden. In these was found $105 in silver. The bags were in a house on the suburbs in a valise left there by Blalock Whitaker. Norwood and Partin were sent to jail failing to give bond of $500 each, for their apparance at Criminal Court,

The next case, that of Wm. Smith, colored, drunk and disorderly, was continued till to-day.

Luke Hall, Henry Stephens and Donan Jackson, colored, were up for an affray. The first was discharged, the others gave bond of $50, for their appearance at Criminal Court.

George Overby, white, drunk and disorderly, and a general vagrant, was sent on to jail to await action of court.

Hardy Walden, colored, drunk and down, was sent to guard house for 12 hours.

Wash Moore, colored, forcible trespass, was dismissed, the plaintiff paying costs in the case.

Henry Jasper, colored, for being drunk and disorderly in market, was fined $5 and costs.

John Glenn, colored, for theft of a pistol from another negro, was sent to jail, failing to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at court.

Nothing is more disgusting on a table than spoons, forks, castors, &c., made of brass, steel, or Britannia, slightly plated with silver. Only genuine nickle can ever take the place of solid silver, and in best plate will last for many years. These are the goods to be found at Law's China and silver house, at prices lower than common goods.

Good Reasons.

Personal attention, energy, always selling for the highest market price, and promptness in rendering account sales, are the reasons that consigners of country produce should ship to Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co., Raleigh, N. C. They receive something of the kind daily and purchasers should call on them. *

At Prime Cost.

On account of removal and change of business I will sell my large stock of boots and shoes at prime cost for cash. I offer shoes cheaper than they have ever been sold at Raleigh. Call and examine.

Western North Carolina Railroad.

The withdrawal by Weddin & Bailey of their coaches and teams from the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Henry, will result in no inconvenience to the traveling public, as an entirely new outfit of coaches, carriages and hacks, with splendid horses, was placed on the line between Henry and Asheville, by Brown and Verble, before the above mentioned withdrawal of Weddin & Bailey.

The new line offers every facility for the accomodation and convenience of the public. Families can still have conveyances to themselves when desired.

Railroad companies and others who have been selling tickets to Asheville and Warm Springs with coupons attached for stage line from head of Western North Carolina Railroad, will continue to do so, as such coupons will be recognized and received for fare over the new line. 1m.

It Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospection of our past lives, how often does conscience whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words, "It might have been." Thus it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemorrhoids, or piles, and heeds not the counsel to try Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, which is warranted to speedily and permanently cure this distressing disease. A Tried Remedy for Billousness

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pill, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the bitters upon the great biliary gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, furred appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter and from all classes of society.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The Magnolia Balm is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store

JONES' BAKING POWDER

—:o:—

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better, purer, more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article through the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
